

1) What colour are the berries of the mistletoe plant?
2) Who presented the first ever National Lottery TV programme (in 1994)?
3) How many circles are there on a twister mat?
4) What did lock millionaire Sir Cecil Chubb give to the nation on 26 October 1918?
5) In which sort of high street shop would you find a Brannock device?
6) Kissing which slab of limestone in Ireland is supposed to give you the 'gift of the gab'?
7) What breed of dog is Santa's Little Helper in The Simpsons ?
8) What is cockney rhyming slang for eyes?
9) Most of the top 20 largest hotels in the world can be found in which city?
10) What was founded in 1969 in Southampton by David Quayle and Richard Block?
11) 'Gone for a Burton' is a euphemistic phrase used by World War Two pilots meaning gone missing, however, what actually was a Burton?
12) What form of transport when spelled backwards means 'clever'?
13) Which politician was born on June 19, 1964, in New York?
14) Who was the first female host of The Radio 1 Breakfast Show?
15) How many countries make up Great Britain?
16) How many children are there in the TV classic The Waltons ?
17) How many times has Del Boy Trotter been married in the BBC sitcom Only Fools and Horses ?
18) The London Marathon takes place annually in which month of the year?
19) What is the national and official language of Bangladesh?
20) 'Ablutions' is an anagram of which sportsman?

21

22

23

24

21)	22)	23)	24)
25) What do all four above entertainers have in common?

ANSWERS:

- 1) White
- 2) Noel Edmonds
- 3) 24
- 4) Stonehenge (Stonehenge had been in private hands since the Middle Ages and bought by Cecil Chubb at a Salisbury property auction in 1915 for £6,600)
- 5) Shoe shop (it's the device for measuring a person's shoe size)
- 6) Blarney Stone
- 7) Greyhound (rescued by Homer when his owner abandons him for finishing last in a greyhound-race)
- 8) Mince Pies
- 9) Las Vegas
- 10) B&Q (the initials come from the founders names: Block and Quayle)
- 11) A pint of beer (refers to going to the pub for a pint of Burton's Ale)
- 12) TRAMS
- 13) Boris Johnson
- 14) Zoe Ball
- 15) Three (Northern Ireland is part of the UK but not Great Britain)
- 16) SEVEN (John-Boy, Jason, Mary Ellen, Erin, Ben, Jim-Bob, and Elizabeth)
- 17) None (he never actually marries Raquel)
- 18) April
- 19) Bengali
- 20) USAIN BOLT
- 21) Annie Lennox
- 22) Sissy Spacek
- 23) Humphrey Bogart
- 24) Kenny Everett
- 25) The link: they were all born on Christmas day

Tiebreaker Question:

Approximately, how many Heinz baked beans are there in a standard 415g can?

Answer: 465 (source (not sauce!): <http://www.heinz.co.uk/FAQs>)